Gebrüder Weiss appoints new Supervisory Board

Dr. Rudolf Christian Stiehl is the new Chairman of the Supervisory Board.

Lauterach, July 1, 2019. The shareholders of Gebrüder Weiss appointed a new Supervisory Board for the next four years during the Annual General Meeting on June 18, 2019. Dr. Rudolf Christian Stiehl was elected Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the globally active logistics group, taking over this function from Dr. Caspar Einem, who is stepping down from the Supervisory Board along with Dr. Johannes Ditz and Prof. Karl Sandner. "We would like to thank the retired members of the Supervisory Board for their many years of commitment to Gebrüder Weiss. It is thanks to their considerable expertise that the company has been put on a clear course to enjoy long-term success." This is the tenor of the statement by the shareholders.

Martin Krieger and Kerstin Gelbmann are new to the Supervisory Board, along with the former CEO of Gebrüder Weiss, Wolfgang Niessner. The Supervisory Board of Gebrüder Weiss GmbH has a total of twelve members, four of which are delegated by the Works Council.

About Gebrüder Weiss

With more than 7,100 employees, 150 company-owned locations and an annual turnover of 1.67 billion euros (2018), Gebrüder Weiss ranks among Europe's leading transport and logistics companies. In addition to its core business of land transport, air & sea freight, and logistics, the company operates a number of highly specialized industry solutions and subsidiaries under the umbrella of Gebrüder Weiss Holding AG, based in Lauterach (Austria) – including the logistics consultancy firm x|vise, tectraxx (industry specialist for hi-tech businesses), dicall (communications solutions, market research, training), Rail Cargo (railway transports), and the Gebrüder Weiss parcel service GWP, co-shareholder of the Austrian company DPD. This bundling of services allows the corporate group to respond to customer needs quickly and flexibly. Today, having implemented a variety of environmental, economic and social initiatives, the family-run company with a 500-year history is also considered a pioneer in sustainable business practices.
